SUPREME COURT OVERTURNS IEEPA TARIFFS

The U.S. Supreme Court handed down its opinion today in the case of Learning Resources, Inc. v. Trump, striking down the use of tariffs under the International Economic Emergency Powers Act (IEEPA), with a 6-3 decision. The decision rendered all IEEPA-based tariffs as no longer authorized. Refunds were not addressed. The impact on trade deals remains unclear. Other existing Presidential tariff authorities remain intact.
